Art Unit: 3682

Figures 6-9 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim 13-20 is objected to because of the following informalities: the phrase "and edge connecting the recess and the bearing surface each other" should be changed in a similar manner as in claim 1. Appropriate correction is required.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 12 is indefinite because it refers to "a standard width" which is of undefined scope.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3682

Claims 1-4, and 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Magnan et al. Note Figure 3 which shows the hole in bearing surface and the recess 20 holowed from the bearing surface.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5, 6, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Magnan et al.

With respect to claims 5 and 6, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the side surface of the recess 20 of Magnan to include other surface profiles, including that of a ramp or curved surface, for the desired purpose of avoiding a sharp edge at the bearing/shaft interface. With respect to claim 10, while Magnan shows the hole at an axial middle of the bearing surface, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to locate the hole axially offset, because Magnan does not necessitate the location to be at the center, and thus a lubrication hole axially offset is within the scope of the disclosure of Magnan.

Claims 14-20 are allowable over the prior art.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Art Unit: 3682

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
